F.F.A. Pig Chain Show Is Set For Tuesday, April 10
 Future Farmers of America of Bulloch County are now readying their pigs for their fourth annual Pig Chain Show to be held here on April 10.
 The F. F. A. pig chain shows began in 1948 when Sears Roebuck, Statesboro Livestock Commission Co., Bulloch County Bank, S. W. Lewis, Sea Island Bank and the Bulloch Stockyards gave 50 gifts to the F. F. A. chapters in the county.
 These gifts were fed out, shown in the 1948 show, and one gift was given from each litter to another boy in the chapter. This procedure was carried out annually, increasing the number of pigs in the chain each year.
 The following Future Farmers will have gifts in this year's show: Partial—Waldo Stewart, Jackie Anderson, Walter Daniel Barnes, Hubert Miller, Douglas Lee, Bobby Clayton Morris, Hudson Williams, Owsen Olliff, J. M. Bowen, and Prince Finch. Their advisor is A. D. Milford.
 Brooklyn—Billy Frawley, Billy Tyson, Calvin Wilson, R. L. Akins, Richard Cowart, D. W. Lee, James Minick, Billy Bennett, Ray Breslin, Jack Benney, and Jimmy Wilson. Their advisor is J. F. Spence.
 Register—Roy Lanier, Albert Yeomans, John C. Nevils, Jack Quick, Robert Donaldson, Herman Miles, Bobby Bohler, J. M. Adams, James Williams, and Hudson Temples. Their advisor is O. E. Gay.
 Nevils—W. A. Lanier, Eugene Nomm, M. C. Anderson, Terrell Anderson, J. Tidwell, Jack Lewis, Autis Nuburn, Jimmy William, Jeff Brock, Felton Young, and James Haygood. Their advisor is Gordon Henrich.
 Jimmy Wilson of Brooklet, Roy Lanier of Register will display hogs in the show.

500 Have Applied For Rural Phones
 Nearly 500 rural homes in Bulloch County have been plotted on the county map for telephone and the application for a loan from the REA to build the lines was filed the first of the week in Washington.
 J. H. Metts, temporary chairman of the group making the application, states that they are still accepting applications for rural phones until the REA sends the engineer to Bulloch to check on the application.
 The map shows excellent coverage of the county, with a few exceptions where there are long stretches without lines.
 F. W. Clark, engineer for the J. B. McCrary Engineering Corporation, Atlanta, plotted the map. If the application is accepted, funds will be allocated for building the lines. An engineer will come to inspect the routes and existing facilities and make recommendations for the actual building of the lines.
 The theme for the meeting will be "Facing the Future Unafraid". Mr. Morris of Redville, state vice president for this district, will preside at the meeting.
 Rev. Lawrence Houston of Ft. Valley, will be the principal speaker. Special guests at the Saturday meeting will be Miss Inez Wallace of Atlanta, state supervisor of the Georgia vocational home-making education program; Mrs. Mac Barbour of Atlanta, state advisor for the F. H. A.; Mrs. Alma J. Richardson of Dudley, district advisor; and Mrs. Beth Lewis of Milledgeville, assistant state supervisor.
 Chapters scheduled to take part in the day's program are Adrian, Deater, Swainsboro, E. C. I. Melter, Caldwell, Millen, Cochran, Redville, Wadley, Brooklet, and Louisville.

Easter Seal Drive Begins Monday
 Announcement is made this week that E. L. Anderson Jr. and Willy Fordham have been named as the Elks' Aldmore House in Atlanta which is famous for its work with crippled children. Several of Bulloch county's youth have received treatment there.
 They state the drive will get underway on Monday of next week and continue through Saturday.
 Easter Seals have been mailed out and the local chairman urges citizens to send in their contributions.
 The Easter Seal drive is for the benefit of the Crippled Children's League of Georgia. It is sponsored by the Elks' Aldmore House in Atlanta which is famous for its work with crippled children. Several of Bulloch county's youth have received treatment there.
F.H.A. Meets In Swainsboro Sat.
 The Women's Rally for the evangelistic crusade will be held at the Baptist Church on Friday morning, March 16, at 10 o'clock. Speakers for the rally will include Harry S. Brunson, Mrs. R. T. Hatcock, and Rev. E. T. Styles. The inspirational speaker will be Dr. Seary Garrison. The ladies are asked to bring a covered dish for lunch.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
 Raymond P. Summerlin, John Strickland and Lt. Jim Good were installed as elders in the church at the morning worship hour last Sunday. Dr. Thomas Alexander, Dr. Tom Little, R. J. Kennedy, Jr., Milton Hendrix, Donald McDonald, and Mr. Smith were installed as deacons. Rev. T. L. Harnesberger discussed the responsibilities of each officer to the church in his morning message.
 A call for a congregational meeting Sunday, March 11, is made to elect Nath Holleman an elder in the church, he having been elected to that position in the church at Dublin before coming to Statesboro.
FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
 Rev. John Long, pastor, will preach on "I Believe in Love" at the Sunday morning 11:30 worship. Continued on Page 3.

It's A Woman's World

Rehearsal Party

For Miss Martin

A lovely event of the season was the beautiful buffet supper given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Nemith with Miss Maude White as co-hostess, on Friday night immediately after the rehearsal of the "Martin-Morris" wedding. The spacious living room was set up with small party tables to accommodate each guest. The bride's table was recognized by the floor length Irish linen cover with a centerpiece of white blossoms, peach, and Lily's of the Valley. The place cards carried a small spray of Lily's of the Valley. The Nemith home was beautifully decorated with appropriate spring flowers. The dining table was a thing of beauty. The centerpiece for the table was made of white anemone, white carnations, and puffs of white nylon net.

The menu consisted of baked country ham garnished on a large silver platter with pineapple rings and red crabapples, hot buttered beans was the vegetable. The salad was centered with egg petals to form a dogwood flower garnished with lettuce and deviled eggs. The big silver tray held the pickles of all sorts that added color and taste to the supper. Cup cakes decorated with colored bride's nogs were with tea was the dessert. Little Judy Nemith served the guests with hot rolls and butter. About 25 guests were present.

Party Honors

Bride-Elect

A beautiful event of the season was the lovely party given Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ray Trappnell with Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. Allen Trappnell as co-hostesses, in honor of Miss Uldine Martin, a bride-elect. The Trappnell home was attractively decorated with beautiful spring flowers. The five small tables were adorned with small plastic umbrellas place cards for each guest. Many appropriate games were played. Many beautiful and useful prizes were given. A delicious salad course was served with miniature cakes decorated with yellow wedding bells. The hostesses gift to the bride was a piece of silver in her pattern.

Luncheon Party

On Saturday, March 3, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Martin were hostess to a luncheon for the "Martin-Morris" wedding party at their beautiful home in Nevils. A bountiful and beautiful four course luncheon was served in the spacious dining room that was attractively decorated with spring flowers. Hazel Thompson Is G.A.'s Queen

A beautiful coronation service was held Sunday evening in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church at 7:30.

Mrs. Paul Carroll, president of the W. M. U. in the opening speech explained the theme for the evening service which is an outgrowth of the children's work as Sunbeams on through the G. A. U. The Young People's Union and up to members of the W. M. U. The Star is the symbol and the message is "Following the Star". Mrs. Dean Fitch is leader of the Young People's work and Mrs. Harrison Oliff is leader of the G. A. U.

There were 18 young girls other than their queen who participated in the services.

The maidens are Barbara Brunson, Maxine Brunson, June Rushing, Myra Alice Prosser, Evelyn Clontz, Dianne Williams, Katherine Taylor, Gladys Banks, Faye Brannan, Bobbie Faye Shelmit and Amelia Brown. The Ladies in waiting are Sandra Hodges, Mary Ann Hodges, Virginia Chapman, Melba Jean Chapman, and Shirley Tanner. The Princesses are Sara Grover and Faye Hagin, the Queen, Hazel Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thompson.

To qualify for queen Miss Thompson had completed required studies of the Bible including the life of Christ and the life of Paul. She understands Baptists beliefs and is acquainted with the church as an organization. She has shown her devotion to her church by regular attendance and personal service in the church.

Miss Sara Stevens of Atlanta presented the awards and crowned the queen. The Rev. George Lovell presented a beautiful white Bible to Miss Thompson.

Dutch Dance Club Enjoys Party

On Thursday evening members of the Dutch Dance Club were entertained by the following hosts at the Forest Heights Country Club: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pound, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Bland, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Joe Matthews.

The Easter season was reflected in the use of snap dragons, iris, daffodils and gladioli in pastel colors. The mantel had a massive arrangement of spring flowers. An Easter bunny perched at one end of the mantel from which cascading ribbons caught up at intervals by florets of pastel flowers completed the mantel decorations. Varicolored flower arrangements were used in other places around the dance section.

The guests were served fancy sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, and coffee.

Emma Kelly's Orchestra furnished the music. Forty couples were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Darby and son, Brad, who visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bradley returned to Jacksonville Sunday with Mr. Darby who came up for them during the week end.

Little Marian Pace Brown of Brunswick is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson, this week.

Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mrs. Barney Averitt and Mrs. Frank Oliff attended the funeral of Mr. Math Gay in Millen Thursday.
